

3rd Annual Art Contest

The State Treasurer’s Office is excited to announce our third annual College Savings Art Contest for Nevada Pre-K - 12th grade students. Submissions will be open from August 14th until October 13th, 2023. Contest entries should follow the prompt “What do you want to be when you grow up?” and three winners will be chosen from each grade level. Prizes range from $250 - $1000 toward a Nevada sponsored 529 college savings account. All student submissions can be sent via email to: collegesavings@nevadatreasurer.gov, or mailed directly to the State Treasurer’s Office at 555 E. Washington Ave, Suite 5200, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101. We look forward to receiving your entries and are excited to showcase the talent of our Nevada students!

STUDENT LOAN OMBUDSMAN

A NVigate Program

Student Loan Update

As Nevada’s Student Loan Ombudsman, Evelyn Castro supports Nevadans in navigating their student loans, whether private or federal. The Student Loan Ombudsman program is a confidential resource for Nevada residents when issues, concerns, or questions arise about student loans or other types of financial aid. No matter where you are in the borrowing process, please contact Student Loan Ombudsman Evelyn Castro at ecastro@nevadatreasurer.gov, with your questions to ensure that you have all the correct information and that you are being treated fairly.

My name is Tya Mathis-Coleman and my dynamic team and I are thrilled to be on this educational journey with Nevadans. As a native Nevadan and a proud product of the Clark County School District and the Nevada System of Higher Education, I understand the challenges that our students face each day. Our team is committed to the students in Nevada, and we work tirelessly to provide opportunities and access to resources that will make going to college less daunting for students, families, and educators.

You are not alone on this journey. We are here to help with scholarships, financial aid, student loans, saving for college and more!

Join us as we dive into expert advice and valuable tips to help you map out a bright future for your loved ones. Together, let’s build the foundation for lifelong learning and achievement.
